PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES AND HAPPENINGS IN TOWN.

Doings of the Various Sets in this City and Its Immediate Vicinity—The Goings and Comings and Other Items of General Interest.

Mrs. Lathrop of Oakland is the guest of Sonoma relative.

Frederick Heggie and sister went to the city Saturday morning.

Jack Costello of San Francisco spent the week-end with local friends.

Mrs. Geo. Lowell returned from a pleasant visit to the Bay City last Friday.

Miss Clara Refeuse left for her home in San Francisco on Friday of last week.

Mrs. H. J. Wicker returned from the metropolis the middle of the week after a pleasant visit.

Miss Ruth Poppe was here from the metropolis Sunday visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Poppe.

The Bachelor Maid's Sewing Club held its last meeting at Miss Baccala's home. The club missed the presence of two of the maids who left recently for their position in Oakland, but they have promised to come back soon with new ideas of the different hits of the season.

On account of the wet weather a small but appreciative audience greeted the Sonoma Valley minstrel troupe, which played in Glen Ellen last Saturday night. The program was well rendered and each participant came in for a good share of applause. A social dance followed and a supper was also served.

F. Frederickson's Estate

Joe Ryan, the well-known deputy sheriff of this place, has petitioned the Superior Court for letters of guardianship on the estate of F. Frederickson, who recently went insane. C. E. Lea and J. W. Ford are attorneys for the petitioner.

Sonoma Clerks Give a Banquet

The store clerks of Sonoma gave a banquet at the Toscano Hotel Wednesday evening. Covers were laid for twelve, and the evening was passed very pleasantly in singing, telling stories and feasting. The supper ended with three cheers for mine host Ciucci and his chef John Decanini.

Dog Licenses for the City of Sonoma for 1914 are now due and payable at my office in the City Hall. J. H. ALBERTSON, City Marshal. Sonoma, Jan. 17, 1914.

On Friday afternoon of last week a chimney fire occurred at R. Cantoni's bakery on First street East. The fire was put out immediately and no damage was done.

A marriage license was issued in San Rafael Monday to Albert R. Dutil, 24, El Verano, and Hilda E. Goebel, 18, San Anselmo. The young couple will reside in El Verano, the groom being the proprietor of the French Cottage in that place.

The Hay Market.

Somers & Co., San Francisco, in their weekly report of the hay market, have the following to say regarding it for the week ending January 20th:

"Although receipts of hay have increased somewhat during the past two weeks, nevertheless arrivals are light, 1500 tons arriving this week and 2138 tons last week. Trade continues quiet although there is just a trifle more activity than during the holiday week, and there is not much prospect for any increased activity in the hay business in the near future.

Prices are somewhat lower, due mainly to the efforts of holders of hay to sell. In nearly every section of the State, hay is offered for sale and in some sections, large quantities are offered at prices $5.00 and $6.00 per ton less than were asked during the harvest season. Strictly fancy hay, both wheat and tame out, is scarce and is being held at a premium, which can readily be obtained for the proper quality in light weight bales.

The movement of hay in the interior is light, although there is some little alfalfa moving but at lower prices than formerly. River alfalfa hay however is very scarce and comparatively good figures can be obtained for the river district.

Straw is scarce and firm, although there is very little demand at the present prices, most people using the cheaper grades of hay for bedding purposes.

DEMOCRATIC WHITE HOPE FOR SENATOR.

Ex-Mayor Phelan May be Francis J. Heney's Opponent for U. S. Senator to Succeed Senator Perkins.

Although there are many Democratic candidates for the gubernatorial nomination the present indications are that only two Democrats, former Mayor James D. Phelan of San Francisco and Thomas F. Griffin of Modesto, will seek the endorsement of their party for the Senatorial seat now held by George C. Perkins. Phelan has made no formal announcement of his candidacy, but many of his friends, taking his public admission that he is in a receptive mood as an assurance that he will run, are already busy in his behalf.

Since his return from his long absence, during which he did valuable work for the Panama-Pacific Exposition in Europe and was a big factor in the successful fight for the Hatch-Henry water supply in Washington, he has made but one political speech. This was at Central California, on which occasion his theme was the achievements of the Wilson Administration. However, he is to address two more political gatherings before the present month ends, one a banquet of the Santa Clara county Democrats at San Jose Saturday evening, January 24, and the other a banquet of the Woodrow Wilson Club of Los Angeles in that city January 28.

Contrary to political gossip Phelan is not making any primary combinations nor are his friends working with that end in view. He believes that all candidates for party nominations should have a fair chance to submit their claims to the party voters, and declares that whatever part he takes in the coming campaign, he will hold fast to that principle.

Should Phelan secure the Democratic nomination for Senator and Heney the Progressive nomination the latter would be a joke, as many of the old-line Republicans as well as some of the Progressives will support Phelan in preference to Heney and he will be a poor third as against the Republican and Democratic nominees.

PASSING OF A PIONEER WOMAN

Mrs. Hood, Widow of the Late Wm. Hood of Los Guilicos, Has Passed to the Great Beyond

Mrs. Hood, widow of the late Wm. Hood, who came to this valley over half a century ago and located with her husband in the Los Guilicos Valley, is dead. She passed away at her home in San Francisco last Wednesday morning, after a lingering illness.

Funeral services were held at Gray's Chapel, San Francisco, yesterday morning, after which the remains were shipped to Santa Rosa for interment.

Mrs. Hood was born in Australia, but came to the United States when a child and settled with her family in California. She was among the first white settlers in the State, and has lived here practically all her life.

After her marriage she moved to Sonoma county with her husband, the late Wm. Hood, who owned large tracts of land in the north. They lived on his property at Los Guilicos, comprising more than 20,000 acres. It was not until after her husband's death that Mrs. Hood abandoned the place and came to San Francisco to make her home. Los Guilicos ranch was one of the most noted in the State, and had a worldwide reputation for its fertility and the richness of its products.

Mrs. Hood was well-known among the pioneers and was held in the highest esteem by her many friends. She is survived by two brothers, James and George Shaw, and three nieces.

The Registration Reports.

There be those, mostly editors of partisan newspapers we fancy, disposed to make overmuch of the registration report in the early days of the new year. That efforts are making on the part of both Republicans and Progressives to present a "showing" is obvious, since of Republicans and Progressives together the registrations for ten days up to last Saturday aggregate 16,891, whereas of Democrats only 5426 registered. This implies that while Republicans and Progressives are making a point of getting their names on the roll early, Democrats are going about the business after the ordinary fashion. However, in this race for early registration the Republicans are well ahead of the Progressives, the figures up to Saturday as reported from seventeen important points being: Republicans 9766, Progressives 7125. At San Francisco registration of Republicans thus far as compared with Progressives is approximately two to one. In Alameda County, on the other hand, the movement has been the other way, 2534 Progressives having registered up to Saturday night as against 1922 Republicans. The surprising fact in the returns is the weakness of the Progressives in Los Angeles, where they have been presumed to be exceptionally strong.

The figures for the first ten days of the month are (from seventeen cities as above stated) 2221 Republicans, 1329 Progressives, 968 Democrats. At Sacramento, where the officials and employees of the state government have been presumed to make Progressivism exceptionally strong, the figures are 969 Progressives, 724 Republicans, 571 Democrats. San Jose—608 Republicans, 316 Progressives, 265 Democrats. Santa Cruz—251 Republicans, 69 Progressives, 148 Democrats. Visalia—152 Republicans, 30 Progressives, 244 Democrats. San Diego—1471 Republicans, 312 Progressives, 555 Democrats. Stockton—518 Republicans, 111 Progressives, 374 Democrats. The only points reported where the Progressives make a showing of greater strength than the Republicans are Oakland, Fresno, Chico, and Ventura, all excepting Oakland by small margins.

Whatever these reports may suggest, they imply nothing positively, since citizens, even though registering under a party name, stand under no legal compulsion to vote as they have registered in the final election. In the primary election the registration controls; and here is one of the weak points of the system. We may take the present situation to illustrate it: A Progressive may register as a Republican and participate in the Republican primary nomination, then in the final election vote for the Progressive candidate. In Oregon, where a similar law has been in force now for about ten years, it has been found that large numbers of Democrats register as Republicans, contribute by their votes in the primaries to the nomination of weak Republican candidates, then return to their normal affiliation on election day. It goes without saying that this is a rank form of political dishonesty. None the less there are many to practice it.

Whatever may be the diplomacies or trickeries of the current registration, it is now evident that the Progressive party is a very considerable force in California. Obviously it is less strong than the Republican party, but its adherents are numerous enough, if they stand to their guns, to make Republican success impossible. On the face of things it looks as if Republicans and Progressives would cut each other's throats at the polls this fall, leaving the election under the plurality principle to the Democrats. And it is more than likely that many Republicans will turn to the Democratic candidates as means of making effective their protest against the Progressives.

The situation is one indeed to stimulate Democratic hopes. Likewise it should sustain Democratic caution. It calls for Democratic candidates whose personality and character shall tend to recommend them not only to their own party but to a multitude of Republicans who may be glad of an opportunity to make sure of eliminating Governor Johnson and his party by giving their votes to the Democratic candidates.—S.
